a bright
idea!

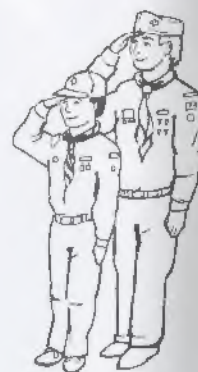

Just for today I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for twelve hours that would appall me if I felt I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Nineteen Ninety-Eight

Just for today I will have a programme. I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it, I will save myself from two pests — hurry and indecision.

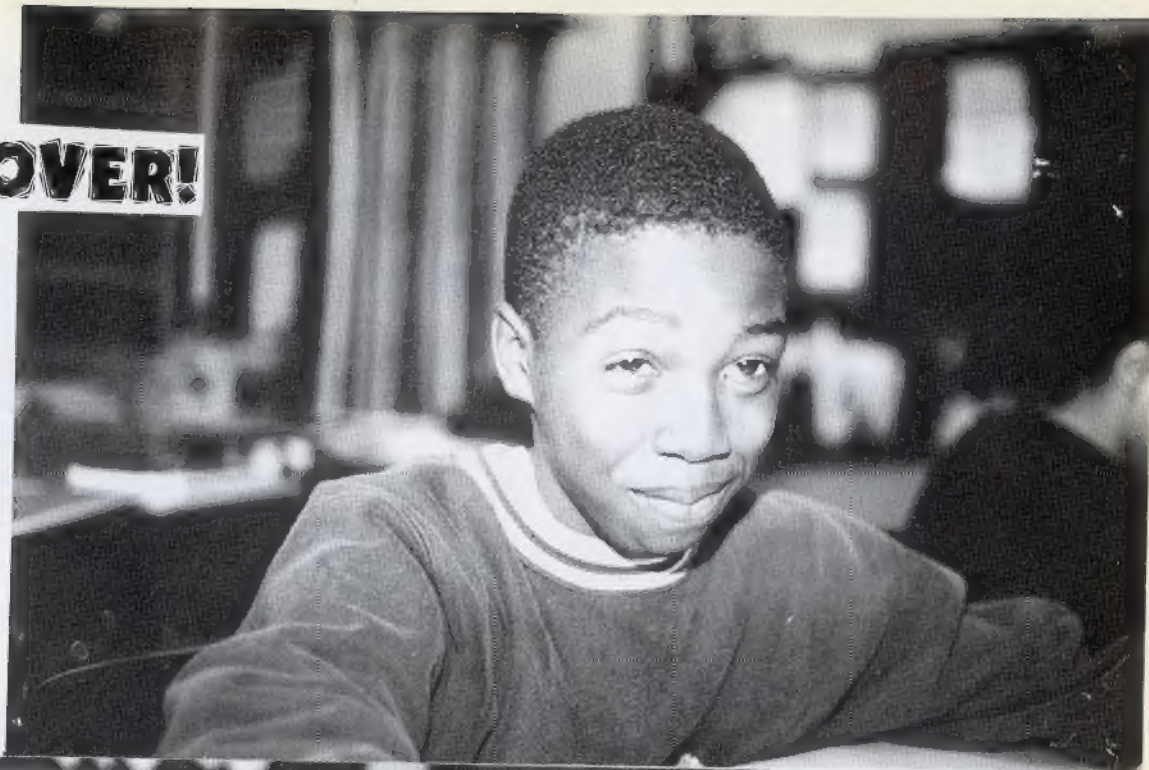

Just for today I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Abraham Lincoln said, "Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

EXPLORE!

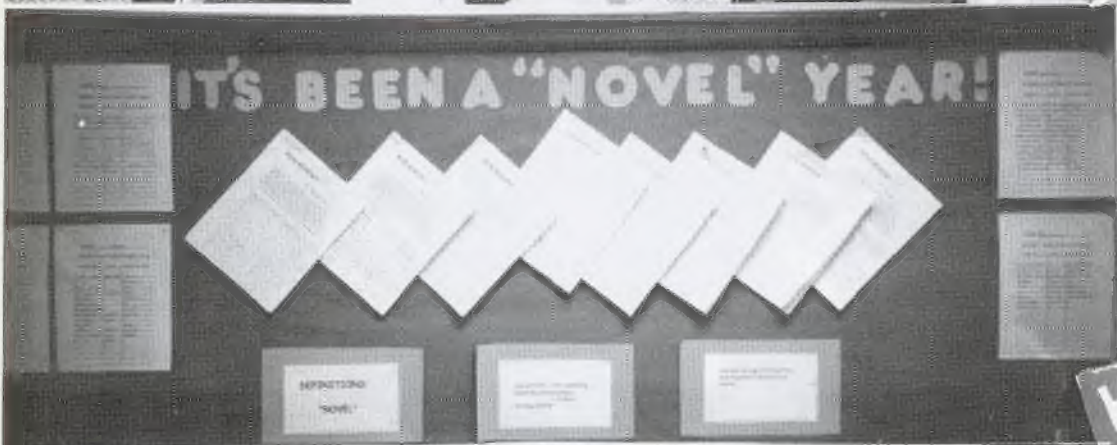

Just for today I will exercise my soul in three ways, I will do somebody a good turn, and not get found out; if anybody knows of it, it will not count. I will do at least two things I don't want to do — just for exercise. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt; they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

Black America the Beautiful

I'm black and I'm proud to be black

Besides all that our ancestors have been through to get us blacks where we are today someone someone ought to be proud

Now we're proving to our Elders that us Youngins
are ready to take the torch and finish fighting the battle and winning the war

We survived slavery
Now lets finish surviving through life and finish fulfilling the dream of the King

It is with feelings of pride that we say farewell to you - the class of '98". You have been well prepared for the roads ahead of you. We are sending you to high school with a love of books, a thirst for knowledge, and the self-esteem you will need to guarantee good choices. We will miss your questions, your stories, and your laughter. You were the class of "firsts" - the first class to have five eighth grade teachers, the first class to attend an "Academy" on Saturday, the first to ever request novels by author! We will remember you fondly.

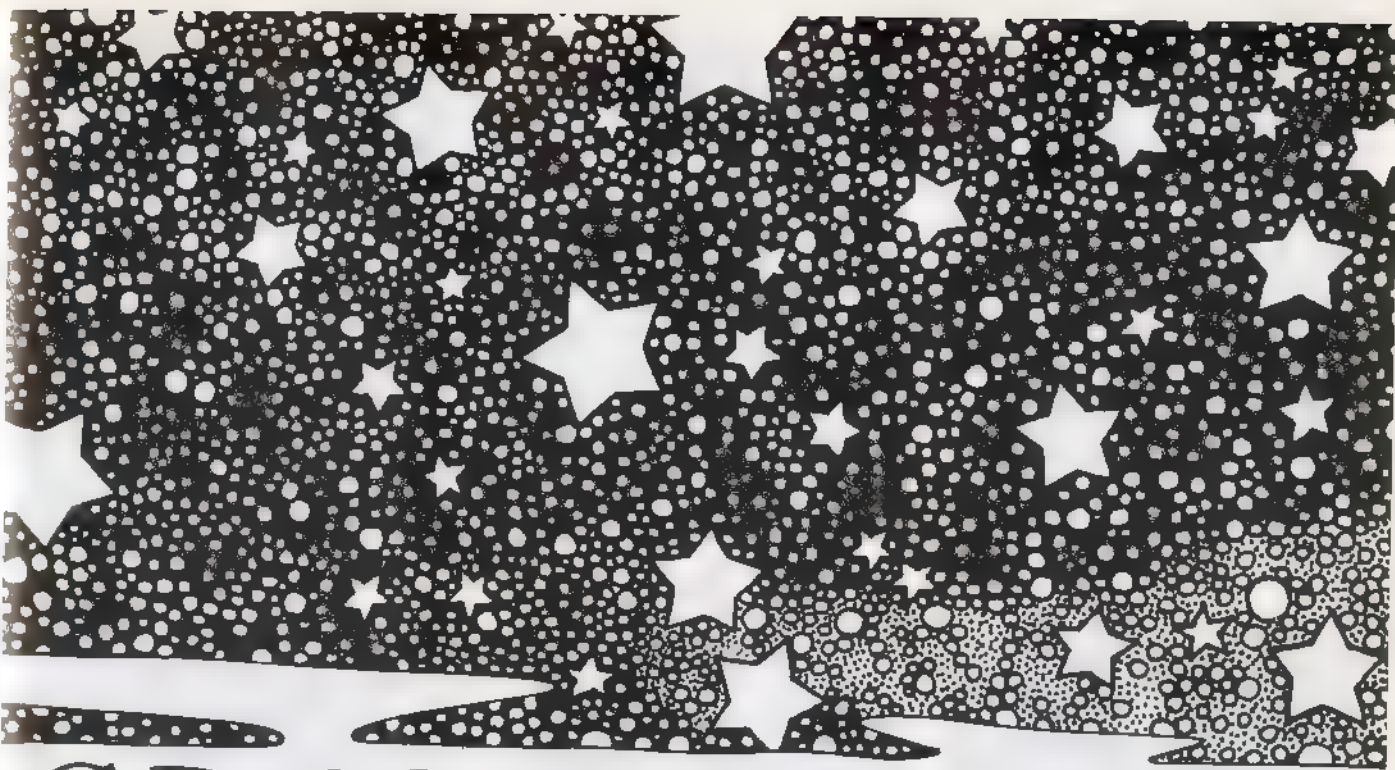

Go forward now and grab all the education you can. Change the world...fight injustice... help those in need...love yourself and others. And always find joy in the journey.
